

The Archivists Round Table of Metropolitan New York, Inc.

Monthly Board Report: April 2018

Next Meeting: May 7 2018

General:

- METRO has suggested a partnership for events. The ART community would receive a discount on programs and would be invited to contribute in leading a workshop or lecture.
- Board Nominations: An announcement and ballot will be sent out by the end of the month. This can also be posted to school listservs.

President

Open Issues and Discussion Items:

- NEA/ART de-brief
 - If this happens again, more promotion within the ART NYC community would need to be pushed.
 - The Education Committee should become a liaison for joint meeting partnerships
 - Peerspace -- review with Board
 - A space for the Awards Ceremony is still needed
 - Considering METRO, WNYC Greenspace, the Museum of American Indians

Vice President

Open Issues and Discussion Items:

- Annual Business Meeting / Call for Nominations preparations
 - Board member testimonials live
 - 1 nominee for Director of Publications!
 - Consider nominating someone in your committee for a position

Outreach

Open Issues and Discussion Items:

- We have set our spring Outreach event for May 20, 2018
 - The event is "Before This Was a Bar It Was A..."
 - It will be held in the bar Hanson Dry, 925 Fulton Street, Brooklyn (Clinton Hill)

The Archivists Round Table
of Metropolitan New York, Inc.

- The theme is researching NYC building history
- Presenters include: Chris Buckley, Hanson Dry owner; Philip Sutton, NYPL Milstein Division; Julie May, Brooklyn Historical Society; Obden Mondesir, Weeksville Heritage Center
- Funding will be used to create Research Starter Kits for attendees
(Margot, what is our budget now?)
